ABOUT GRANT & CUTLER AT FOYLES

Established in 1936, Grant & Cutler was the largest independent foreign-language bookseller in the UK. In 2011 the firm merged with Foyles and now operates from our new, flagship store in London's Charing Cross Road. Foyles was founded in 1903 and is an iconic name in UK bookselling, winning the National Bookseller of the Year award in 2013 and Children's Bookseller of the Year award in 2012.

Our foreign language range includes popular fiction and classics, children's books, translations, language-learning material, dictionaries and reference and books on culture, politics and history. With access to the Foyles stock of more than 200,000 titles, we can also supply books on any subject and not just foreign languages.

A selection of the languages on offer:

Albanian, Arabic, Bengali, Bulgarian, Chinese, Czech, Danish, Dutch, Farsi, Finnish, French, German, Gujarati, Hungarian, Italian, Japanese, Kurdish, Latvian, Lithuanian, Norwegian, Panjabi, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Russian, Serbian, Slovak, Somali, Spanish, Swedish, Tamil, Turkish, Urdu, Vietnamese.

ABOUT THIS CATALOGUE

This catalogue lists a selection of recently published foreign fiction, as well as translations from English, translations from other languages and recent paperback reprints. All editions are paperback unless otherwise specified. Titles are listed on our website and can be ordered there.

PRICES & DISCOUNTS

Prices are given in British pounds and are correct at the time of cataloguing. They may change due to increases by publishers and to fluctuations in exchange rates.

Public Library customers will receive a discount of 20% on orders for fiction. Trade customers will receive 10%.

HOW TO PAY

We accept payment by the following methods: Mastercard/Visa, bank transfer and cheque in GBP. Libraries and other institutions will normally receive credit terms.

HOW TO ORDER

By email, mail, phone, fax and at www.grantandcutler.com or www.foyles.co.uk using either a Foyles or a Grant & Cutler account code.

SUPPLIER SELECTION AND CILLA

Our multilingual staff are highly experienced in selecting the best items to suit your reader profile and in making the most of your budget.

For some years we were the Polish book provider for the OCLC CILLA service. This service has been discontinued but we produce our own regular lists of new Polish books and we can also select to your budget. We have a member of staff working permanently in Krakow where she is well placed to select suitable titles.

STANDING ORDER PLANS

Keep your readers coming back with the latest novels sent to you on a regular basis. We can set up a monthly, quarterly or bi-annual standing order plan tailored to suit your individual requirements. To discuss a plan, please contact Barbara Berezowska.

SHOWROOM VISITS

We welcome you to Foyles, to browse and to choose items from our extensive range. Refreshments are provided and our staff are on hand to advise or recommend. Your selection will then be invoiced and sent to you.

BOOK SERVICING

Plastic jackets, barcodes, date labels, stamps and spine labels are all available as part of our service; prices on request.

NEWSPAPERS AND MAGAZINES

Our subscription service provides a direct link to Europe. Your newspapers, magazines and journals arrive direct from the country of publication but with the convenience of a single invoice.

MARC RECORDS

UKMARC and MARC21 records are available free to BDS subscribers.

SOME COMMENTS FROM LIBRARY CUSTOMERS

- ...but having seen the increase in issues that using the expertise of G&C can bring... (London Borough of Greenwich Libraries)
- I will definitely be recommending Grant and Cutler to any other of the regional development officers as well as libraries in Wales (Powys Regional Development Office)
- I looked through the books and they look wonderful. I am very impressed with the selection and service of your company. I had placed orders with several companies in the US before I placed the order with you and yet your books came first (Ann Arbor District Library, USA).
- ...thanks for arranging the order of Polish books a couple of months ago. I am very pleased how that worked out and I would like to ask if I could arrange for more Suppliers selections in other languages (Oxford Central Library)
- Hello Helen, I had a very successful visit on Thursday - no doubt you are busy working your way through them now! (Reading Libraries)
- Just a quick email to say how pleased I am with the stock that you and your staff have selected for us. The books in Polish in particular are flying off the shelves and are just right for our readers! Many thanks for all your hard work. (A public librarian)

New Fiction

- Appanah, Nathacha. Une année lumière, 2018, Gallimard, pp.144, 9782072819896, £12.00
The author talks about her childhood in Mayotte, life on Mauritius, and the Indian language of her parents and ancestors. She denounces the misdeeds of globalization, the fate given to migrants and the question of racism.
- Aurousseau, Nan. Les amochés, 2019, Buchet Chastel, pp.330, 9782283031193, £19.99
Abdel Ramdankétif retires to the mountain village where his parents lived when they arrived in France. Everything has changed in just a few decades. A novel which depicts a particular French province, showing its people and poverty.
- Badinter, Robert. Idiss, 2018, Fayard, pp.227, 9782213710105, £21.50
This book is a tribute to the author's maternal grandmother, Idiss. It does not claim to be either a biography or a study of the condition of Jewish immigrants from the Russian Empire who came to Paris before 1914. It is simply the story of one woman's destiny.
- BESTSELLER Barbery, Muriel. Un étrange pays, 2019, Gallimard, pp.387, 9782072831508, £22.00
A wonderful mix of fairytale, poetry, fable and adventure story.
- Baud, Patrick. nanofictions, 2018, Flammarion, pp.128, 9782081390034, £14.50
These short stories invite readers to dive into a rich imagination full of fantasy, poetry and humour. They are complete stories in just a few sentences.
- Ben Jelloun, Tahar. L'insomnie, 2019, Gallimard, pp.272, 9782072831553, £20.00
The story of an insomniac who became a murderer to order to "find sleep".
- Benchetrit, Samuel. Reviens, 2018, Grasset, pp.252, 9782246784029, £20.95
The tender world of a writer in search of inspiration and love.
- Beraber, Anton. La grande idée, 2018, Gallimard, pp.573, 9782072791901, £22.25
A fictional novel on the life of Saul Kaloyannis, a Greek soldier defeated by the Turks in 1922.
- Blais, Marie-Claire. Une réunion près de la mer, 2018, Seuil, pp.282, 9782021392487, £20.50
Two parties are being planned on the island. Cabaret artists, writers, doctors, prostitutes, prisoners, patients, musicians, and poets all find themselves attempting to fight against the destruction of the world and find hope.
- Blas de Roblès, Jean. Rituel des dunes, 2019, Zulma, pp.272, 9782843048432, £21.99
When Roetgen arrives in Tsientsin, China, he meets Beverly, a deliciously eccentric woman, twenty years his senior. They become lovers. As Beverly reveals certain parts of her eventful life, she asks Roetgen, like a Sheherazade, to tell her stories as incredible as her own life.
- Bobin, Christian. L'anuit du coeur, 2018, Gallimard, pp.208, 9782072742187, £18.00
A great and beautiful book like a love letter, a list of wonders and visions by the solitary writer and poet.
- Boissard, Janine. Les quatre filles du docteur Moreau, 2018, Fayard, pp.224, 9782213710303, £20.99
The story of a family of four daughters — arguments, worries, tears and love.
- Bona, Dominique. Mes vies secrètes, 2019, Gallimard, pp.318, 9782072830723, £21.50
The autobiography of a passionate biographer and how her works about Romain Gary, Gala Dali, Stefan Zweig, Camille Claudel, Colette, and many more, became her own personal story.
- Bordes, Gilbert. Elle voulait voir la mer, 2018, XO, pp.315, 9782845638129, £21.99
May 1944. Five young Jews follow the course of the Loire River, hoping to join the ocean and embark for America. But the meanders are numerous and perilous.
- Bourdin, Françoise. Gran Paradiso, 2018, Belfond, pp.286, 9782714474773, £23.50
Lorenzo, a veterinarian, wants to build an animal park where species will evolve closer to their natural habitat and, at the same time, seduce the woman he still secretly loves. A crazy bet that will arouse admiration or hostility.

1597, the Vatican. Angelo DeGrasso, General Inquisitor of Liguria, is given a private audience with the Pope, the Superior General of the Inquisition and a strange astrologer named Darko. He has just been informed that a heretic named Eros Gianmaria carries a terrible secret: he is the only one who knows the whereabouts of the latest copy of a forbidden book, the Necronomicon, and Angelo has to use his expertise to get a confession.
- La sexta vía, 2019, Debolsillo, pp.520, 9788466345361, £8.99
The Church fears the extinction of faith to the detriment of reason. The worshippers of the devil have the opportunity to annihilate Christianity. An ancient document, written by learned and catholic hands, can bring about the end of all religions. And the components of the Corpus Carus must keep it hidden.
- El umbral del bosque, 2019, Debolsillo, pp.496, 9788466345378, £8.99
17th century. The Venetian navigator Pier Ugo Mameli is hired by the mysterious Hungarian countess Elizabeth Báthory to recover a lost chest in the Gobi desert in Mongolia. But he cannot move it by land: he can only do it by sea, which forces him to devise a complicated itinerary to reach his destination.
